

Women of Isaiah Maagal Tzedakah Fund Request Community Requests

Each year, the Women of Isaiah Maagal Tzedakah Fund has available funds for projects that support our mission statement (see reverse side of this form). We wish our donations to have a high impact, either directly or indirectly, on our local Temple community. Your request for funds should include the following information:

- Name, address, and phone number of your organization
 - Name of contact person
- Brief description of your organization (i.e. mission, goals, accomplishments)
- Title and brief description of your project. Indicate if the project is an existing/ongoing project or a new one
 - Detailed project budget and amount of grant request
 - Describe specifically what the Maagal Tzedakah Funds will support. (i.e. How will these particular monies be spent?)
- An indication of which part of the WOI mission statement (see reverse side of this form) your project supports
 - Include verification of your non-profit status

Please submit your information (deadline is May 1st) to:

Women of Isaiah

Mission and Purpose

The mission of the Women of Isaiah shall be:

- ☆ To enhance and support Temple Isaiah through special programming, financial support, and involvement of the women within our congregation
- ☆ To offer Temple women the opportunity for establishing friendships and a sense of community within our congregation
- ☆ To provide opportunities for learning about Judaism, critical issues, women-related issues, and to stimulate overall spiritual and individual growth
- ☆ To channel our collective energies towards the humanitarian needs of the community through social action initiatives and ongoing programs
- ☆ To offer programming and financial support for Temple youth as a means of assuring the future vitality of Judaism

In addition, The Women of Isaiah shall be affiliated with the Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ) and with District #24 of the Western Federation of Temple Sisterhoods (WFTS). Women of Isaiah will further the programs of the WRJ to the best of its ability.
