Women of Isaiah

Mission and Purpose

The mission of the Women of Isaiah shall be:

- ☆ To enhance and support Temple Isaiah through special programming, financial support, and involvement of the women within our congregation
- ☆ To offer Temple women the opportunity for establishing friendships and a sense of community within our congregation
- ☆ To provide opportunities for learning about Judaism, critical issues, women-related issues, and to stimulate overall spiritual and individual growth
- ☆ To channel our collective energies towards the humanitarian needs of the community through social action initiatives and ongoing programs
- ☆ To offer programming and financial support for Temple youth as a means of assuring the future vitality of Judaism

In addition, The Women of Isaiah shall be affiliated with the Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ) and with District #24 of the Western Federation of Temple Sisterhoods (WFTS). Women of Isaiah will further the programs of the WRJ to the best of its ability.
